

Irish Writers Centre Rates of Pay for Professional Writers 2023

Our initial offer of work will detail the level of engagement and expectation of scope of work; any further details requested by the artist will always be discussed before they commit to or are engaged in the work. Our correspondence will also include a link to the Payscales policy detailed below.

We commit to making our rates of pay to artists more clearly available on our website and in correspondence. We believe in the importance of transparency on matters of pay and working conditions, and that sharing this information publicly is to the benefit of all writers.

Facilitation:

- The rate for facilitation of writing courses or workshops, online or in person is €70 per hour.
- Seminar, intensive online or in person, €100 per hour.

Writing workshops or courses are usually 2 hours per session, and often continued over a number of days or weeks. Each course contains the following elements:

- A discussion of the practical elements of writing
- A critical examination of established works
- Workshopping of the students' writing
- Feedback on students' work where applicable

Seminars are usually 90 minutes to 3 hours and delivered online. Seminars are more lecture driven than workshops, with a capacity for a larger number of participants. There is less participant interaction than with workshops other than the inclusion of a Q & A session.
